

Chapman University

Chapman University Digital Commons

Jack P. Bell Second World War Correspondence Collection

CAWL Archives: Second World War

4-2-1943

1943-04-02, Evabel to Jack

Evabel Bell

Follow this and additional works at: https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/bell_collection

Recommended Citation

Bell, Evabel, "1943-04-02, Evabel to Jack" (1943). Jack P. Bell Second World War Correspondence Collection. 133.
https://digitalcommons.chapman.edu/bell_collection/133

This Letter is brought to you for free and open access by the CAWL Archives: Second World War at Chapman University Digital Commons. It has been accepted for inclusion in Jack P. Bell Second World War Correspondence Collection by an authorized administrator of Chapman University Digital Commons. For more information, please contact laughtin@chapman.edu.

1943-04-02, Evabel to Jack

Keywords

U.S.A.; U.S. Soldiers; correspondence; Infantry; Elyria, Ohio; army; troops; signal corps; postal service; postal stamp; training; women at home; marriage; romance; love; wife; husband; Camp Butner, N.C.; barracks; humor; recreation and entertainment; leisure; education; motion pictures; post-war hopes; cold weather; comradery; employment; money; funds; reading;

Identifier

2014.160.w.r_Bell_worldwartwo_1943-04-02_015

Post. John. P. Bell

78th Signal Co

78th Div.

Camp Butner,
N.C.

A.P.O. 78

Mrs. Jack Bell
340 W. River St
Elyria, O.

Apr 2, 1943.

Darling,

I got your funny little letter to-day and I had to laugh. I opened it up and the first thing I read was "Dear Folks." at first I thought you had typed a letter for me and then right away it struck me that it was a form letter and then I saw my Sweetie's handwriting on the back of it and was very tickly pink. Isn't that exasperating to stand in line half the night and then not get what you come for. Just like the time of our 2nd wedding anniversary. When we stood in line for about an hour waiting for the Shaw and then when we got in, it was lousy. But I didn't mind that because we were to-gether. I never minded anything as long as we were to-gether.

Darling, I'm so glad you find your

7

Classes are interesting. you know when you find them interesting that's when you do good.

Jean Gibson just called and I think we are going to the show to-githar. We are either going to see "Powers Girl" or "Beyond a shadow of a Doubt". Both are very good. I'll tell you in to-morrow's letter which one we saw. This will be the first show I have gone to since you left.

Dashing, I'm so sorry you didn't get a letter from me on the 30th. I've written you every single day since you have left. I haven't missed a day. I guess somehow the mails get all screwed up. you know the mail is heavier now than it has ever been, so I suppose that's the reason.

Talk about your crazy weather. yesterday it was so beautiful out. Real warm, just typical spring weather and to-day it is snowing out. I took the "zip-in" lining out of my coat and now I suppose I shall have to put it back in. Oh dear, this weather is enough to drive a person batty.

Sweetheart, I have a confession to make to you. Now this is awful and if you don't want me to I won't do it, but I just had to tell you, I'm wearing some of your clothes. I have your green socks on right now. I wore your tan sleeveless sweater, the only trouble with the sweater is that on me the sweater has bumps and on you it lay so nice and flat. Now if you would rather I didn't wear them, I won't.

I keep watching in the paper to see if "Buddy" has to go to the army but I haven't seen anything as yet. But I shall report the first thing I see.

Darling, you wrote in your last letter that you were healthy and cheerful and I hope you are happy too. I'm so glad. I want you to know when you are

4
happy then I'm so happy too. you know
Darling, I'm so busy that I don't even have time to get morbid. I'm so tickled that your close to your sis, that I'm not even sad about your being away. In fact here's the way I look at it. We had the two ^{of the} happiest years any couple on God's green earth could have had and so I'd figured they should be spread out a little and when you come back we will have so much more happiness that the little time we lost won't even count. If you can understand what I mean, I said
it kind of mixed up, But you always could
figure out what I was trying to tell you. you know me like no one else does.

Do you know that I got as much money this week for 6 days as I did last week for five days.
I can't figure it out. Oh well I guess they must have overpaid me last week.

Well, Sweetie, here comes the bottom of the page rushing up to meet us, so I shall
say so long to my darling soldier husband
who I love more than I could ever put on this paper.

P.S. Write and tell me if you have enough stationery. If not I'll send you some.

your soon
Fink.

[[Nick Dante 6/16/16]]

[[Bell Correspondence #15]]

[[Page 1- Envelope - Front]]

[[image- purple three cents U.S. postage stamp]]

[[image- black circle stamp: ELYRIA, OHIO 1943
APR 2 9~ PM]]

Pvt. John P. Bell

78th Signal Co.

78th Div.

Camp Butner,
N. C.

A.P.O. 78

[[Nick Dante 6/16/16]]

[[Page 2 - Envelope - Back]]

Mrs Jack Bell
345 W. River St
Elyria, O.

[[Page 3 – Letter]]

April 2, 1943.

Darling,

I got you funny little letter to-day and I had to laugh. I opened it up and the first thing I read was "Dear Folks." At first I thought you had typed a letter for me and then right away it struck me that it was a form letter and then I saw my Sweetie's handwriting on the back of it so I was very tickled pink. Isn't that exasperating to stand in line half the night and then not get what you came for. Just like the time of our 2nd wedding anniversary. When we stood in line for about an hour waiting for the show and then when we got in, it was lousy. But I didn't mind that because we were to-gether. I never minded anything as long as we were to-gether.

Darling, I'm glad you find your

[[Page 4 – Letter]]

2/

classes are interesting. You know when you find them interesting that's when you do good.

Jean Gibson just called and I think we are going to the show to-gether. We are either going to see "Powers Girl" or "Beyond a shadow of a Doubt". Both are very good. I'll tell you in to-morrow's letter which one we saw. This will be the first show I have gone to since you left.

Darling, I'm so sorry you didn't get a letter from me on the 30th. I've written you every single day since you have left. I haven't missed a day. I guess some how they mails get all screwed up. You know the mail is heavier now then it has ever been. So I suppose that's the reason.

Talk about your crazy weather. Yesterday it was so beautiful out. Real warm, just typical spring weather

[[Page 5 – Letter]]

3/

and to-day it is snowing out. I told the “Zip-in” lining out of my coat and now
I suppose I shall have to put it back in. Oh dear, this weather is enough to drive a person batty.

Sweetheart, I have a confession to make to you. now this is awful and if you don't want me to I won't do it, but I just had to tell you, I'm wearing some of your clothes.
I have your green socks on right now. I wore your tan sleeveless sweater, the only trouble with the sweater is that on me the sweater has humps and on you it lay so nice and flat. Now if you would rather I didn't wear them, I won't.

I keep watching in the paper to see if “Buddy” has to go to the Army but I haven't seen any thing as yet. But I shall report the first thing I see.

Darling, you wrote in your last letter that you were heathy and cheerful and I hope you are happy too. I'm so glad.
I want you to know when you are

[[Page 6 – Letter]]

4/

happy then I'm so happy too. You know
darling, I'm so busy that I don't even
have time to get morbid. I'm so tickled that your close to you Sis, that I'm not even sad about you being away. In fact here's the way I look at it. We had the two of the happiest years any couple on God's green earth could have had and so God figured they should be spread out a little and when you come back we
will have so much more happiness that
the little time we lost wont even count. If you can understand what I mean, I said
it kind of mixed up, But you always could
figure out what I was trying to tell you. You know me like no one else does.

Do you know that I got as much money this week from 6 days as I did last week for five days.
I can't figure it out. Oh well I guess they must have over paid me last week.

Well, Sweetie, here comes the bottom of the
page rushing up to meet us, so I shall
say so long to my darling soldier husband
who I love more than I could ever put on this paper. your own,

P.S. Write and tell me if you have Fink.
enough stationary. If not I'll send you more.